Brightleaf Robotics - Contractor Policy (fictional)

Scope and time off

Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document. Some teams publish additional local guidelines; where they conflict with this policy, this policy applies. Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team.

This policy applies to independent contractors, not to employees. Contractors do not receive paid annual leave. Unpaid time off must be agreed with the engagement manager 2 weeks in advance.

The intranet contains templates, frequently asked questions and contact details related to this section. New joiners are introduced to this policy during onboarding and are asked to confirm that they have read it.

Invoicing and equipment

This section applies to all locations unless local law requires otherwise, in which case local law takes precedence. Questions about this section should first be raised with your line manager, who can involve the relevant team if needed. Exceptions may be granted in special circumstances, but they must be documented and approved in writing before they take effect.

Contractors invoice monthly, by the 5th working day of the following month. Invoices are paid within 30 days of receipt. Contractors must use their own equipment unless a company laptop is required for security reasons.

The company reviews this policy regularly and announces material changes on the intranet and in the monthly newsletter. Where this policy refers to managers, it also includes team leads who have formal people-management responsibilities.

Ending an engagement

Employees are expected to use good judgement and to act in the spirit of this policy, not only the letter. Records created under this policy are kept in line with the company's data retention schedule. Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document.

Either side may end a contractor engagement with 30 days' written notice. Contractors must return all company property and access badges on their last day.
