Brightleaf Robotics - Hr Handbook (fictional)

Welcome and working hours

Where this policy refers to managers, it also includes team leads who have formal people-management responsibilities. Employees are expected to use good judgement and to act in the spirit of this policy, not only the letter. Records created under this policy are kept in line with the company's data retention schedule.

Brightleaf Robotics has offices in Pune, Berlin and Toronto. Core working hours are 10:00 to 16:00, Monday to Friday. Outside core hours, employees may start and finish when they choose, provided they work 40 hours per week. Employees must record their hours in the TimeTrack portal by 18:00 every Friday.

Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document. Some teams publish additional local guidelines; where they conflict with this policy, this policy applies.

Probation and notice

Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team. The intranet contains templates, frequently asked questions and contact details related to this section. New joiners are introduced to this policy during onboarding and are asked to confirm that they have read it.

New employees serve a probation period of 6 months. During probation, either side may end employment with 2 weeks' notice. After probation, the notice period is 2 months for individual contributors and 3 months for managers.

This section applies to all locations unless local law requires otherwise, in which case local law takes precedence. Questions about this section should first be raised with your line manager, who can involve the relevant team if needed.

Annual and sick leave

Exceptions may be granted in special circumstances, but they must be documented and approved in writing before they take effect. The company reviews this policy regularly and announces material changes on the intranet and in the monthly newsletter. Where this policy refers to managers, it also includes team leads who have formal people-management responsibilities.

Full-time employees receive 25 days of paid annual leave per year, in addition to public holidays. Up to 5 unused annual leave days may be carried over, and carried-over days expire on 31 March. Employees receive 12 days of paid sick leave per year. A doctor's note is needed for absences longer than 3 consecutive working days.

Employees are expected to use good judgement and to act in the spirit of this policy, not only the letter. Records created under this policy are kept in line with the company's data retention schedule.

Family leave

Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document. Some teams publish additional local guidelines; where they conflict with this policy, this policy applies. Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team.

Birthing parents receive 26 weeks of fully paid parental leave. Non-birthing parents receive 6 weeks of fully paid parental leave, to be taken within the child's first year. Employees may take up to 5 days of paid compassionate leave after the death of a close family member.

The intranet contains templates, frequently asked questions and contact details related to this section. New joiners are introduced to this policy during onboarding and are asked to confirm that they have read it.

Benefits

This section applies to all locations unless local law requires otherwise, in which case local law takes precedence. Questions about this section should first be raised with your line manager, who can involve the relevant team if needed. Exceptions may be granted in special circumstances, but they must be documented and approved in writing before they take effect.

The company matches pension contributions up to 6% of base salary. Each employee has an annual learning budget of 1,500 EUR for courses, books and conferences. The wellness allowance is 50 EUR per month and can be used for gym memberships or fitness classes.

The company reviews this policy regularly and announces material changes on the intranet and in the monthly newsletter. Where this policy refers to managers, it also includes team leads who have formal people-management responsibilities.

Remote work and conduct

Employees are expected to use good judgement and to act in the spirit of this policy, not only the letter. Records created under this policy are kept in line with the company's data retention schedule. Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document.

Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week with their manager's agreement. A one-time home office allowance of 400 EUR is paid during the first month of employment. Gifts from suppliers worth more than 75 EUR must be declared to the compliance team.

Some teams publish additional local guidelines; where they conflict with this policy, this policy applies. Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team.