Brightleaf Robotics - Travel Expense Policy (fictional)

Booking travel

Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team. The intranet contains templates, frequently asked questions and contact details related to this section. New joiners are introduced to this policy during onboarding and are asked to confirm that they have read it.

All business travel must be booked through the TravelDesk portal at least 10 days before departure. Trips abroad require approval from the department head.

This section applies to all locations unless local law requires otherwise, in which case local law takes precedence. Questions about this section should first be raised with your line manager, who can involve the relevant team if needed.

Flights and trains

Exceptions may be granted in special circumstances, but they must be documented and approved in writing before they take effect. The company reviews this policy regularly and announces material changes on the intranet and in the monthly newsletter. Where this policy refers to managers, it also includes team leads who have formal people-management responsibilities.

Economy class is required for flights under 5 hours. Premium economy may be booked for flights of 5 hours or more. Train travel is preferred over flying for journeys under 4 hours.

Employees are expected to use good judgement and to act in the spirit of this policy, not only the letter. Records created under this policy are kept in line with the company's data retention schedule.

Hotels and meals

Breaches of this policy are handled through the normal disciplinary process, which is described in a separate document. Some teams publish additional local guidelines; where they conflict with this policy, this policy applies. Requests are normally answered within a reasonable time, and urgent cases can be escalated to the people team.

Hotel costs are reimbursed up to 180 EUR per night in capital cities and 130 EUR elsewhere. The daily meal allowance is 45 EUR within Europe and 60 EUR outside Europe. Alcohol is not reimbursed.
